Preserve Updates

Pool Survey

We received over 200 surveys & are in the process of determining the needs & wishes of our members. Once the scope of work is determined, we will begin conversations with contractors regarding costs & timing. Watch the newsletter for future updates.

2018 Eagle Scout Project

This year we have a two faceted project being planned and executed by a local Eagle Scout with assistance from his troop and family. They will be replacing the grill posts near the Barn that have rusted out through the years. They will also finish clearing the Mike Wilwerding Memorial Bench area on Neill Lake and pouring a concrete slab to set the bench on.

High Point Tot Lot

The rotting and unsafe timbers have been removed. We have done a temporary clean-up to the area and are looking into landscaping options. The paths in that area are also scheduled for repaving, however, they must wait until the landscaping is done (probably in 2019) to avoid damage to new paths.

Pollinator and Prairie Project

We have an exciting new project on the southwest corner of Neill Lake. On a test basis we have granted permission to have one of our neighbors develop a 16,000 sq. ft. area into a Prairie Restoration and Pollinator area. This will be at no cost to The Preserve and will allow a beautiful side path off of the existing berm, through native plantings. The first year is primarily site preparation and eradicating the invasive species. 2019 will be the first full growing season and is considered "a lesson in patience". We will primarily see black-eyed susans and some yarrow. Stay tuned for future updates.

Preserve Pickleball

Interested in trying pickleball? We have a group of residents playing on Thursday evenings at 6:30 p.m. Drop-ins welcome. We have a limited supply of racquets.

John Renne - Grounds Manager

John joined our team in March just in time to get a taste of plowing our paths after a huge snowstorm. He has been busy with his crew, clearing, cleaning and fixing everything in his sight. John brings over 20 years of experience as a hotel Chief Engineer to our property and often taps the lessons of growing up on a farm to help beautify our areas.

Katz Zimmerman - Gardener

Katz joined The Preserve team in 2017 and could hardly wait for the snow to melt so she could get started this year. Even with the late Spring, she has once again, brought our gardens to the beautiful level we have enjoyed for many years. She enjoys meeting the Preserve residents so stop by and say hello if you see.
